Chapter 1 by Allodoxia

It was not the first time Lavellan had heard the snobbish whispers from the Orlesians that loitered the halls of Skyhold University mention the scandal that would not hurt the inquisition, but broke his heart. He couldn't even deny the accusations. Evidence supported their claims.

Dorian was cheating on him.

Sure the Tevinter mage never stated outright that what was going on between them was exclusive, but the vigor in which he flirted, the heated stares, and the way the room seemed to only revolve around the Inquisitor when they shared small chats led him to believe-

No, it was idiotic to dwell on. If Dorian wanted to pursue intimacy with The Iron Bull he would not be what came between them.
